

Phone: 805.474.9143
Fax: 805.474.9569
office@pcroncology.com

Ixabepilone (Ixempra)

Ixabepilone is a chemotherapy drug. It is usually given by intravenous infusion over 90 minutes, once every 21-days.

Potential side effects:

Nerve damage (numbness/tingling) in 60%, usually mild

Fatigue

Muscle aches and joint pains

Hair loss in half

Nausea (usually mild)

Irritation of the mouth.

Diarrhea

Constipation

Abdominal pain

Headache

Motor nerve damage leading to weakness